

Application for Free 3-week Summer Activities for Newcomers in Reykjavík Youth Centres

According to regulations in Leisure and Youth Centres, newcomers can apply for a free 3-week summer activities in Reykjavík Leisure and Youth Centres if the following conditions are fulfilled:

If parents are of foreign origin and their legal address is in Reykjavík (either or both parents), and if their child has been living in Iceland for less than two years, they can apply for a free 3-week long summer activities for their child at a leisure centre, special summer programme or youth centre. This offer does not apply to children whose legal address is abroad and who only come here temporarily during the summer months. This offer is provided, and only if the conditions are fulfilled, to the parent that has the same legal address as the child according to the National Registry.

Parents can apply for summer activities on the website <http://sumar.fristund.is>, and must also fill out this form to the director of the leisure centre, special summer programme or youth centre.

Name of parent or guardian	Social Security no. of parent or guardian
Legal address:	Postal code:
Name of child:	Social security no. of child:
Child's school:
When did the child move to Iceland:
In which summer activities has the child been registered?
Which weeks of the summer programme are asked to be free (maximum of 3 weeks)?

Date and Place

Signature of the Director

Signature of the applicant

* By signing this form, I confirm that either or both of the parents are of foreign origin.

This form should be submitted to the director of the leisure or youth centre, the director will then file it to the financial manager of the centre. The applicant also receives a signed copy.